

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Public Television Network and Public Radio offer a unique service to the citizens of South Dakota by broadcasting programs covering a wide variety of cultural, educational and public interest affairs, and by providing a means for bridging communications gaps; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Public Television Network and Public Radio are public and noncommercial, and exist only to serve the interests and tastes of all citizens of our State, to help fill public needs and to meet public problems; and,

WHEREAS, A national time of recognition and support of public broadcasting stations called FESTIVAL '80 is being observed by the Public Broadcasting Service:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period of March 1-16, 1980, as in South Dakota, and urge the citizens of this State to make an effort to become aware of and support the valuable services provided by their public broadcasting stations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty
